

Savour a real flavour of Hampshire

Hampshire offers a wealth of fabulous food and drink that has been grown, reared or produced in the county, and which is available from an increasing number of pubs, restaurants, hotels, delicatessens and farm shops who want to be associated with selling good quality local produce.

County food group Hampshire Fare produces a useful guide to 'Producers of food, drink and craft in Hampshire' which includes details of eateries and outlets where local food and drink can be enjoyed, and also of caterers who can bring food to your office, party or event. This is available free, telephone 01962 845999 or visit www.hampshirefare.co.uk. Hampshire Fare also organises the hugely popular Hampshire Food Festival fortnight, held annually at the end of June/early July.

Hampshire is also home to the largest farmers' market in the UK held in Winchester, where visitors can buy everything from meat, game and fish to bread, vegetables, dairy products, beer and wine direct from around 90 producers. These are a great showcase for Hampshire food, drink and craft. Hampshire Farmers' Markets are also held in other market towns including Alton, Petersfield, Romsey, Southsea, Southampton and Andover. Full details are available from www.hampshirefarmersmarkets.co.uk telephone 01420 588671.

By buying food and drink from Hampshire, you can not only enjoy the best local produce, but also make an essential contribution to the sustainability of Hampshire's beautiful countryside, the rural economy, the environment and our market towns.

Hampshire has it all

Hampshire offers the ideal location for lovers of country pursuits.

The county has a long association with traditional pursuits, from horse riding in the ancient hunting grounds of the New Forest to fishing in the famed River Test. As well as rolling downs, tranquil rivers, majestic woodlands and picture postcard villages, Hampshire offers top quality accommodation and superb facilities that are guaranteed to provide the perfect short break.

Our welcoming hotels will be happy to arrange a variety of country activities, from fly fishing and clay pigeon or pheasant shooting to horse riding and golf. Hampshire has many clubs, organisations and companies providing an exciting range of country pursuits and with many local shops stocking specialist sporting equipment you'll be sure to get the most out of your stay.

No holiday is complete without good food and Hampshire is fast gaining a reputation for the quality of its local produce. You can sample our fine beer and wines, distinctive cheeses and succulent meat and game in many of our hotels, restaurants and country pubs while specialist gourmet breaks, lively farmers' markets and Hampshire Fare events will add to the culinary delights.

We also have world famous gardens for you to explore, as well as lovely walks. If you can tear yourself away from the countryside, the coastline - with its stunning views of the Isle of Wight, sailing heritage and wide range of water sports - is only a short distance away.

Getting to Hampshire couldn't be simpler, with fast access via the M3 and frequent trains linking London and the south.

If you love country pursuits, you'll love Hampshire.

Great sporting leisure breaks

Enjoy horse riding, fishing, shooting and golf at some of our excellent centres, which welcome both beginners and the more experienced. Many hotels have leisure facilities on site and all will be happy to arrange these activities for you - see our fantastic range of opportunities overleaf. A number of short break packages are also available for country pursuits.

Fishing

The chalk stream rivers of Hampshire, with their clear waters and unspoilt meadows, are renowned the world over. The Rivers Test and Itchen hold an unrivalled reputation for river game fishing while still water and coarse fishing are also available. Day and season tickets can be purchased and many centres provide qualified guides and instructors.
