

The Fox and the Crocodile – finger puppets

fox

crocodile

Materials

- Light brown felt
- Green felt
- Scraps of orange and black felt
- 10cms white ric-rac braid or white vilene
- Black embroidery thread or wool

To make the fox

Cut two body shapes out of light brown felt.

Cut two eyes out of black felt and sew or glue on to one body part, or use black thread and satin stitch to make eyes.

Use backstitch to show the snout, whiskers and under the eyes and use satin stitch to make the mouth and the nose.

Oversew the two body shapes together.

To make the crocodile

Cut two body shapes out of green felt.

Cut two smaller eye shapes out of black felt and two longer eye shapes out of orange felt. Sew or glue into position.

Tack ric-rac braid to the front body shape (or if using Vilene, notch one edge to make teeth and tack on to front body).

Use black thread and backstitch to sew three zig-zag rows on front body.

Over sew the two body shapes together.

Pattern pieces for puppet bodies

