

Local history

Eastleigh-a typical railway town? £22

Examines Eastleigh's growth and typicality in terms of the development of Victorian railway towns.

Four local history Studies? £5.50

The Gurkhas in Farnborough, Saxons in Southampton, the SOE in Beaulieu and a murder and execution in Alton.

Key Stage 4 Publications

Hitler and Saddam: same problem? £11

Pupils explore if George Bush's analogy of Saddam Hussein being like Hitler is valid.

How did Hitler come to power? £11

Correlates highs and lows in Germany with Hitler's rise to prominence and power.

Triumph of the Will: Documentary or propaganda? £11

Pupils argue against Leni Reifenstahl's claim that her film about the Nuremberg Rally was not propaganda.

How successful was the League of Nations? £11

Examines contrasting views and examines the role of WW2 and hindsight in shaping opinions over time.

Hitler's invasion of the Rhineland: Safe bet or wild gamble? £11

Pupils explore this episode in the lead up to world War 2.

Public health in C 19th £11

Women in C19th Medicine £11

To request items from this catalogue please complete the online form at: <http://tinyurl.com/history-online-form>. Please pass/forward a copy of the completed form to your Finance Officer. Hampshire LA schools MUST also send an IBC Internal Trading Customer Request to history_centre@hants.gov.uk or we will be unable to supply the goods.

NB Prices quoted in this brochure apply to History Centre subscribing schools. Non-subscribing schools will be charged an additional £35 per item. To check your subscription status contact 01962 874802.

History Curriculum Centre Secondary Resources 2015-16

British history

Three Medieval lessons CD £16.50

Features 3 lessons: What happened to Harold at Hastings?, How did Becket die?, and The Fate of Wat Tyler.

Should the expulsion of the Medieval Jews be remembered? £22

Explores the origins of anti-Semitism and the nature of historical significance.

Did the Fire of London end the Plague? £22

Examines whether the widely held belief that the Great Fire ended the Plague is actually true.

Swing Riots Enquiry £22

Cross-references data and other information to examine whether local riots and rioters were typical of the wider unrest.

How historically significant is the Battle of Hastings? £11

Examines whether the Battle of Hastings marks a truly significant point in British history.

Three 1500-1750 lessons CD £16.50

Features: Was Bloody Mary really bloody?, The World Turned Upside Down and The Execution of Charles I.

Brothers in Arms—Civil War Enquiry £22

Examines whether Cromwell was the right man to take over after the Civil War and who supported each side.

Battle of Waterloo £22 NEW

In this bicentenary year, examine why such different stories have been told about the Battle of Waterloo.

British history

Wilberforce or Wilberfest? £11

Was Wilberforce really responsible for the abolition of Slavery? Pupils explore his role and significance.

What does the story of Walter Tull tell us about soldiers in WWI? £11

This lesson uses personal story to develop pupils understanding of the diversity of the people who fought in WW1.

Investigating Local War Dead £22

Case studies of Eastleigh and Basingstoke illustrate bringing a local element into a study of WWI to make it relevant and meaningful to students.

WWI Tomb of the Unknown Warrior £11

Examines the state funeral held after WWI for an unknown and unnamed soldier. What is the significance of his anonymity?

To request items from this catalogue please complete the online form at: <http://tinyurl.com/history-online-form>. Please pass/forward a copy of the completed form to your Finance Officer. Hampshire LA schools MUST also also send an IBC Internal Trading Customer Request to historycentre@hants.gov.uk or we will be unable to supply the goods. NB Prices quoted in this brochure apply to History Centre subscribing schools. Non-subscribing schools will be charged an additional £35 per item. To check your subscription status contact 01962 874802.

Who are the British?: Movement and settlement the Big Picture £11

Explore pupils' own history of movement to, from and within Britain then link to wider movements of peoples to and from and within Britain.

Was El Alamein: the turning point of World War 2? £11

Features an interactive timeline via which pupils explore events in WW2 to answer the question.

No Irish need apply: 1950s Britain £11

Pupils examine evidence to prove or contradict poll results that suggest the 1950s were a golden age in Britain.

World history

Custer at Little Bighorn £22

Examines reasons for Custer's defeat via media clips, roll play, from which pupils draw conclusions.

The Migrant Mother £11

Roosevelt's New Deal relief programme is explored via the story of a migrant mother. Evidence shows it was propaganda. Was this justified?

The Cinderella Man £11

Pupils explore the Boom and Bust years in the USA by comparing them to the ups and downs in the life of boxer James Braddock.

President Kennedy and the Civil Rights movement £11

Pupils explore to what extent President Kennedy supported the Civil Rights movement.

Free at last? The Emancipation Proclamation £11

Examines the extent to which the Emancipation Proclamation improved life for black Americans.

Winter Palace Enquiry £22

Compares film and historical interpretations of this event to explore how purpose and audience affect representations

Why was Rasputin murdered? £11

Pupils examine sources and draw conclusions in the light of the latest evidence.

The Story of Frau Haferkamp £11

Pupils assess German people's response to the Nazi regime via one woman's story.

The Legacy of WW2 in Germany and Japan £22

Compares Germany and Japan's response to their actions during WW2 and assesses their outcomes.

Eight Significance Lessons £5.50

Looks at the significance of various historical events and people—WWI, Nazi Germany, Titanic, Eugene Sledge, Mary Seacole, Stalin and Wilberforce.

