Description of Event

“Welcome to the beguiling, hilarious, delightful world of Sleeping Dogz...craziness, underwritten by some great, nicely individual acoustic music.”

Richard Carrington Rock'n'Reel magazine 2007

Be prepared to be thoroughly entertained!. Well known for his successful partnership with John Otway, multi instrumentalist Willy Barrett, accompanied by two other fine players Mary Holland and John Devine comes highly recommended by everyone who has booked them. Not only are they terrific musicians playing guitar, fiddle, cello, banjo and harmonium, but the have great fun with their performances. A joy to see, hear and join in the choruses. The image says it all!
